

COHO CONFAB

August 21-23, 2015

Westminster Woods on Bohemian Highway, Western Sonoma

A FIELD GUIDE TO COHO SALMON RECOVERY

Sponsored by Salmonid Restoration Federation, and the California Department of Fish & Wildlife

WORKSHOPS AND FIELD TOURS:

- Salmonid Restoration in Dutch Bill Watershed
- Large Wood Placement Methodologies Tour
- Willow Creek, Passively Restored Wetland Complex
- Conservation Hydrology to Conserve Coho Habitat: Rain Gardens, Swales, and Off-Stream Storage
- Navigating Water Rights and Building Capacity for Community Based Water Conservation Programs
- Field Guide to Central California Coast Coho Recovery
- Grape Creek Watershed Tour
- Roofwater Harvesting and Streamflow Restoration
- Warm Springs Hatchery Tour and Dry Creek Restoration Projects

Advanced Registration is $175 and includes meals, camping, workshops, and field tours. Registration after July 20 is $200

For more info, please visit www.calsalmon.org or call (707) 923-7501